How To Make Money With Amazon Affiliate Marketing

Amazon is the world's biggest retailer online, and the best thing about them is that they are sharing their profits! You can make money while they are making money.

The Amazon Associate Program provides compensation to their affiliate members who are referring customers to purchase in Amazon.com. They are offering a profitable opportunity for everyone to earn a huge amount of money.

Amazon.com is a world trusted brand. To prove, Nielson Research reported that Amazon is the most trusted brand worldwide and number 1 most popular shopping destination online. Amazon has millions of loyal customers all over the world and they spend more money in this online shopping marketplace than any other retailing site.

By being an affiliate member of Amazon.com, you will get a commission to the products you refer to the people. The good thing is that a huge number of Amazon's online customers normally purchase more than 1 product per session. For this reason, as an affiliate member, you will not only earn a commission on the product that you are promoting for people to buy, but your commission will be based on all the products that they bought once they are on Amazon.

The commission on Amazon begins at 4% and can increase up to 15%. If you just sell 4 products per month, your commission will increase to 6%. The compensation goes like this, the more products you sell per month, then the higher your commission will be. Imagine if you have a lot of customers and they are purchasing more than 1 product at Amazon, the commission you can obtain when the payday comes will certainly be a big amount of money.

Here are the commission details

Compensation option 1 – Performance Fee Structure

When you become a member of this program, you will be automatically enrolled in the Performance Fee Structure. This commission structure enables you to get higher fees once you generate an adequate amount of referrals that will result in sales on Amazon.com per month. The greater your referrals, the higher your earnings will be.

With this commission structure, your advertising rate ranges from 4 percent up to 15 percent and will be based in the total amount of successful shipped items coming from Amazon and 3rd party sellers.

Once Amazon.com approves your application, you will be given an access to a special section on their site, which will give you many different ways on how you can link to the official website of Amazon or the products they sell.

After that, you will have to create affiliate links in your website, which will lead directly to Amazon or any product that they are selling on their site.

If the visitor of your site clicks in any of your approved affiliate links and directed to Amazon.com, and they bought any item at Amazon within the given time period which is stated in the affiliate agreement, you earn a percentage of commission for that successful purchase.

As with the affiliate program, you need to follow strictly the terms of agreement, and be sure to promote the affiliate links in your site according to the affiliate agreement.

Take Note: If you will not follow correctly the terms of agreement of the affiliate program of Amazon.com, you will be removed from them and you will lose all the commission that you have earned since the time you have started as an affiliate associate. That would certainly be a huge loss in your part.

For example, buying from Amazon.com using your own approved affiliate links maybe a good idea as you will be able to get a discount, but for your information this is considered as a violation of Amazon's terms of agreement.

First timers tend to do this, and they end up losing the commissions they have earned and the opportunity to make more money.

If you want to make sure that you will make money with Amazon Affiliate Program, one of the most important things that you should do is to choose the right niche. This is not all about selecting a niche that you are interested to engage with, but this is particularly about choosing a niche where there is profit.

Well, there are some theories online on how to choose a good niche on Amazon.com, but the best way to find a profitable niche is to select a product niche that is reasonably new, which has a good market demand or search volume and priced at a reasonable amount.

Another effective way for you to find a profitable niche is to identify your passion. Take, for example, you are passionate about books, you can go to Amazon.com and find out the most in demand books nowadays and promote them.

If you want, you can easily find a good niche by checking out the bestsellers on Amazon.com. Go to their website, in the search box, click the arrow pointing down just beside it and a list of products by category will appear. Select the category that you want to engage with and click “Go.”

Below the search box, there are a number of options to choose from for a better search result. There you will see the “Best Sellers” option, click it and it will show you the most in demand products in that particular category.

The screenshot shows the Amazon.com homepage. At the top, there's the Amazon logo and navigation links like 'Hello, Sign in to get personalized recommendations. New customer? Start here.', 'Your Amazon.com', 'Today's Deals', 'Gifts & Wish Lists', and 'Gift Cards'. Below this is a search bar with 'Books' entered and a dropdown menu. Under the search bar, there are tabs for 'Books', 'Advanced Search', 'Browse Subjects', 'New Releases', 'Best Sellers', and 'The New York Times® Best Sellers'. The 'Best Sellers' tab is selected, leading to the 'Amazon Best Sellers' page. The page title is 'Amazon Best Sellers' and the subtitle is 'Our most popular products based on sales. Updated hourly.' Below the title, there's a section for 'Best Sellers in Books'. On the left, there's a category filter for 'Books' with a list of sub-categories: '4-for-3 Books', 'Arts & Photography', 'Audible Audiobooks', 'Bargain Books', 'Biographies & Memoirs', 'Books on Cassette', and 'Books on CD'. The main content area shows the top book: 'Smart Trust: Creating Prosperity, Energy, and Joy in a Low-Trust World' by Stephen M.R. Covey, Greg Link, and Rebecca R. Merrill. The book cover is visible, featuring the title 'SMART TRUST' in large red letters. To the right of the book, it says '1. 📈 1 day in the top 100'. There's a link to 'Sign up to be notified when this item becomes available.'

When you find a potential niche where there is profit, start building a good blog regarding this niche.

You can start by building a free blog with Wordpress and Blogger. Click the link, then sign up and create a blog.

If you want, you can get started by getting your own server from HostGator or BlueHost.

Once you already have a blog, start researching for a good keyword that is relevant to your niche using keyword research tool such as Google AdWords or Market Samurai for better search results. Consider those niche relevant keywords that have high searches and low competition.

And if you find a good keyword for your niche, start making an article about it and use it to promote a certain product by putting a simple, yet enticing hyperlink message directing to Amazon.com or the particular product you are promoting. In this way, you will be able to increase your chance to drive your visitors to purchase the product you are promoting at Amazon.com.

3. Create A Product Review Site or Blog Review Site

One of the most effective ways that affiliate marketers use to make money at Amazon.com is by creating a blog review or product review website for the items that they would like to promote and earn commission.

A blog review, for example, is a great way to convince or drive the visitors of your site to visit Amazon.com and make a purchase.

In addition, include also some attractive facts such as discounts or money back guarantee. This will help you to encourage your readers to try the product and buy it at Amazon.

Take Note: Your new site cannot work on its own to attract online customers to visit your blog. You need to promote your site in order for you to be visited by potential customers.

Promote your blog by article marketing, forum marketing, social bookmarking, social media marketing, and other effective online marketing strategies.

4. Choose The Right Product To Promote

The most ideal products to promote are those items that are in demand at this time. The rule here is simple, if the product is in demand, promote it, but if not, then don't as simple as that. Why choose to risk your time for products that are not getting any good sales, if there are those saleable products available for you to choose from. Be wise!

The image shows a screenshot of the Amazon Associates banner advertisement. At the top left is the "amazon associates" logo. At the bottom of the banner, it says "Earn up to 4%* on Electronics, Wireless & Computers, Up to 10% on Gaming" with an upward-pointing arrow icon.
